WHEREAS, the City terminated the four officers; an arbitrator upheld the terminations of the three officers who challenged their terminations; and

WHEREAS, in 2003 the City Council approved the Negotiated Settlement Agreement ("NSA") to resolve the Riders case and the Court issued an order approving the NSA and retained jurisdiction to oversee compliance with the NSA; and

WHEREAS, the NSA requires that the City institute police reforms to ensure that Oakland police officers exercise their powers and perform their duties in compliance with constitutional standards and that the parties to the NSA work with an Independent Monitor who would help the Court oversee compliance; and the parties subsequently executed a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") and an Amended Memorandum of Understanding ("AMOU") that superseded the NSA and the City continues to implement the remaining compliance tasks; and

WHEREAS, in 2009 the Oakland Police Department selected Police Performance Solutions, LLC (formerly Alexandria Group of MPRI) to serve as Independent Monitor for a two-year period under the NSA/MOU in accord with the City's contract procedures and laws and the Council approved the professional services

Frazier as the Compliance Director (Order Appointing compliance Director, March 4, 2013, ECF No. 911; see also Order Re Compliance Director, December 12, 2012, ECF No. 885); and

WHEREAS, the Court's February 12, 2014 Order further stated that the Monitor shall discuss with the City "necessary modifications to his contract as a result of the expansion of his powers and duties, including whether he needs to have a greater on-site presence and the amount of additional compensation that would be appropriate", and that the "Court expects the additional compensation, including travel expenses and costs associated with any assistants, not to exceed $150,000 annually and the order further stated that any disputes regarding the contract modifications will be resolved by the Court (Order Modifying Compliance Oversight Model, Feb. 12, 2014, ECF No. 973); and

WHEREAS, the City Administration determined that an additional amount up to a maximum of $15,000 was sufficient to cover the aforesaid costs of insurance and business license taxes and therefore sought approval for the City Administrator to execute a separate contract with Robert S.
