Resolution of the Oakland Joint Powers Financing Authority Authorizing the Substitution of City Hall for the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center as Part of the Leased Property in Connection with the Oakland Joint Powers Financing Authority Lease Revenue Refunding Bonds (Oakland Convention Centers), Series 2001; Approving the Execution and Delivery of Amendments to Leases to Substitute such Property and Authorizing the Taking of all Necessary Actions Relating Thereto;

SUMMARY

City Council has approved the sale of the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center to the City of Oakland Redevelopment Agency (the "Agency"). In order to proceed, the City has to unencumber the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center that is currently securing the outstanding Oakland Joint Powers Financing Authority Lease Revenue Refunding Bonds, Oakland Convention Center, Series 2001 (the "Series 2001 Bonds").

Pursuant to Section 629 of the 2001 Lease, the City has the right from time to time to substitute property as part of the Leased Properties (Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center and Oakland Convention Center – George P. Scotlan Memorial). The City desires to withdraw the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center and substitute City Hall as part of the Leased Properties. This will allow the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center to be sold to the Agency.

Finance and Management Committee
June 14, 2011

An ordinance and resolution have been prepared to seek immediate authorization for the substitution of City Hall for the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center as part of the Leased Properties in connection with the Series 2001 Bonds.

FISCAL IMPACT

There is no fiscal impact for substitution of such Leased Properties.

BACKGROUND

In 2001, the Oakland Joint Powers Financing Authority (the "Authority") issued the Series 2001 Bonds in the amount of $134,890,000. In connection with the Series 2001 Bonds, the City leased certain sites and facilities (the "Leased Properties") to the Authority under the Second Amended and Restated Ground Lease (the "2001 Ground Lease") and the City leased back the Leased Properties from the Authority under the Second Amended and Restated Lease and Sublease Agreement (the "2001 Lease").

Currently the Series 2001 Bonds have an outstanding par amount of $50.7 million with a final maturity in October 2014. Since the Series 2001 Bonds are still outstanding and the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center is pledged to the Series 2001 Bonds, the City cannot sell the encumbered asset. However, if the City substitutes City Hall in place of the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center, then City Hall will be the pledged asset to the Series 2001 Bonds instead of the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center. This will allow the City to continue with the sale of the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center.

KEY ISSUES AND IMPACTS

It is necessary to perform the substitution of City Hall for the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center to unencumber the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center in order to move forward with the sale to the Agency.

Therefore, the City has determined that it is in the best interest to amend the Leases to allow the substitution of City Hall for the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center as part of the Leased Properties in connection with the Series 2001 Bonds. The substitution of property is permitted under and in compliance with Section 629 of the 2001 Lease. The substitution will only be for the duration of three and a half years since the Series 2001 Bonds will mature in 2014. After 2014, City Hall will be an unencumbered asset.
