OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL

2008 APR -3 PM 2:37

RESOLUTION NO. _____ C.M.S.

City Attorney

Introduced by Councilmembers Nancy J. Nadel, Jean Quan, and Larry Reid

Resolution Recognizing The Outstanding Accomplishments Of The McClymonds High School Boys Basketball Team, The Warriors, For Their Undefeated (32-0) Season, Winning the Division I California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) State Championship, Being Honored By Cal-Hi Sports As California's Team of the Year, And Being Ranked Number Two in the Nation By MaxPreps, America's Source for High School Sports

WHEREAS, on March 15, 2008, the Warriors, the McClymonds High School Boys Varsity Basketball Team, won the Division I California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) State Championship, capping an undefeated season, with a 73-54 triumph over the Dominguez-Compton Dons; and

WHEREAS, under the leadership of Head Coach Dwight Nathaniel, a 1974 McClymonds graduate, and Assistant Coach Brandon Brooks, McClymonds' starting point guard in the 1978 Northern California Tournament of Champions title game (which McClymonds also won), the Warriors' had their first undefeated season since 1962 and won their first state title in school history; and

WHEREAS, the turning point in the championship game occurred in the second quarter when, trailing 28 to 29 with three minutes left, the Warriors went on a 7-0 run from which the Dons were never able to recover; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors' defensive intensity dominated the second half, with the team pushing the lead to 10 points three times in the third quarter, and to a 61-46 lead in the fourth quarter with less than five minutes left in the game; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors' undefeated season included 32 wins, with a team average of 69.2 points per game while only giving up only 48.6 points per game; and

WHEREAS, two days after winning the state title, the Warriors were named the Cal-Hi Sports State Team of the Year, making them the first Northern California team since 1992 to finish the season ranked Number One in the state but the sixth time McClymonds High School has finished at the Number One ranking; and

WHEREAS, with the state title victory the Warriors also vaulted from last year's sixth position to being ranked Number Two in the nation by MaxPreps, America's Source for High School Sports; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors team, also known as "The Mack Family" for playing with a lot of heart, will graduate eight seniors, all of whom will attend college and three of whom have received athletic scholarships; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Oakland City Council recognizes and praises the McClymonds High School Boys Varsity Basketball Team, The Warriors, and their coaches for their outstanding season, for their academic success, and for their status as the 2008 Division I California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) State Champions; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Oakland City Council does hereby proclaim

April 15, 2008
McCLYMONDS HIGH SCHOOL WARRIORS DAY

in the City of Oakland, and urges its recognition, participation, and support by all Oakland residents.

Resolution Honoring Coach Dwight Nathaniel For His Outstanding Leadership Of The McClymonds High School Boys Basketball Team, The Warriors, In Their Undefeated (32-0) Season And Division I California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) State Championship, Congratulating Coach Nathaniel On Being Named The 2008 State Coach of the Year by CalHiSports, And Congratulating Him on His Retirement After 13 Years As a Coach/Educator

WHEREAS, on March 15, 2008, Head Coach Dwight Nathaniel led the Warriors, the McClymonds High School Boys Varsity Basketball Team, to their victory in the Division I California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) State Championship, capping an undefeated season, with a 73-54 triumph over the Dominguez-Compton Dons; and

WHEREAS, Coach Nathaniel graduated from McClymonds High School in 1974, after starring on the football and baseball teams; and

WHEREAS, Coach Nathaniel returned to McClymonds in 1992 as the Junior Varsity Coach, after coaching at the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) level for 10 years, later becoming Head Coach of the Warriors' Varsity Team, inspiring student-athletes for 13 years, only taking a break from 1998 to 2000 to focus on his family; and

WHEREAS, Coach Nathaniel is also a 20-year employee of the City of Berkeley where he currently manages energy conservation and energy programs for low-income residents of Berkeley and Albany; and

WHEREAS, under Coach Nathaniel's leadership, this was the Warriors' first undefeated season since 1962 and their first state title in school history, vaulting the Warriors from last year's sixth position to being ranked Number Two in the nation by MaxPreps, America's Source for High School Sports; and

WHEREAS, two days after winning the state title, the Warriors were also named the Cal-Hi Sports State Team of the Year, making them the first Northern California team since 1992 to finish the season ranked Number One in the state but the sixth time McClymonds High School has finished at the Number One ranking; and

WHEREAS, it is no surprise then that Coach Nathaniel was named the 2008 State Coach of the Year by CalHiSports.com; and

WHEREAS, Coach Nathaniel's philosophy is to treat the gym as a classroom — where teaching basketball and life-skills is the order of the day and the "exams" consist of the competitions on the court and in the classroom — and all eight of this season's graduating seniors will attend college, three of them on athletic scholarships; and

WHEREAS, this was Coach Nathaniel's final season and he is retiring after 13 years at McClymonds, finishing his career with 248 wins and 108 losses with the Warriors; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the elected officials, staff, and residents of Oakland hereby recognize Coach Dwight Nathaniel for his leadership and outstanding commitment to McClymonds High School, the students, and the Warriors; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Oakland City Council and City Administrator extend their heart-felt appreciation, on behalf of all the residents of Oakland, to Coach Nathaniel for his 13 years of dedicated service to the students of McClymonds High School, and to the City of Oakland, and join his colleagues and associates in saluting his exceptional achievements.
