SUBJECT: Public Hearing on the Assessment of Liens for Delinquent Transient
Occupancy Taxes

SUMMARY

Pursuant to Chapter 4.24 of the Oakland Municipal Code, hotel operators receiving rents are required to pay Transient Occupancy Tax to the City. If the tax is paid by the transient to the hotel operator at the time the rent is paid, then the transient's debt to the City is extinguished.

An administrative hearing for delinquent Transient Occupancy Taxes was held on September 19, 2006, to hear protests and resolve any inconsistencies or inequities raised by hotel owners/operators regarding the non-payment of Transient Occupancy Taxes. The administrative and public hearings are held only after all other procedural means to resolve unpaid taxes have been exhausted. Following the administrative hearing, the City notified hotel owners/operators of its intent to record a lien against their property should they fail to pay delinquent taxes due the City.

A public hearing has been scheduled for October 17, 2006, and a resolution has been prepared confirming the placement of liens on two properties and authorizing the subsequent assessment for all fees and charges, should the liens remain unpaid at the time of the City's submission to the County Assessor.

FISCAL IMPACT

Hotel owners/operators owe the City delinquent Transient Occupancy Taxes and administrative fees for the accounts not resolved at the September 19, 2006, administrative hearing as shown in the attached list. If the City fails to place a lien to recover the delinquent taxes, the General Fund would lose $5,718 in estimated revenue.

BACKGROUND

Hotel owners/operators were sent notices during a review and assessment process to address delinquent Transient Occupancy Taxes determined to be due the City. The owners/operators are then given the opportunity to appeal their cases via an administrative hearing process.

Item: _____
City Council
October 17, 2006

An administrative hearing for delinquent Transient Occupancy Taxes was held on September 19, 2006, to hear protests and resolve any inconsistencies or inequities raised by hotel owners/operators regarding the non-payment of Transient Occupancy Taxes.

Following the administrative hearing, the Tax Administrator filed with the City Administrator a written notice of those persons on whom the City will file liens for unpaid taxes, penalties, interest and other charges. If these amounts remain unpaid or unresolved after a public hearing by the City Council, the City Council shall authorize by resolution the recordation of liens on the subject properties for costs incurred for delinquent Transient Occupancy Taxes and added administrative and assessment charges. The delinquent charges and assessments shall constitute a special assessment against said property, and shall be collected at such time as is established by the County Assessor for inclusion in the next property tax assessment.

The public hearing is scheduled for October 17, 2006. A resolution has been prepared confirming the placement of liens on two properties and authorizing the subsequent assessment for all fees and charges.
