RE: REVISED DRAFT RESOLUTION

On January 30, 2001, the Community and Economic Development Committee considered a report and resolution allocating $10,691,000 of Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds between the categories of Housing, Economic Development, Neighborhood Improvements/Public Services, and Administration.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the Committee directed that clearer language be added about how the Citizen Advisory Committee would recommend programs that provide funding in a "fair way".

The attached revised resolution specifies under Further Resolved: "That the Citizen Advisory Committee (CAC) is directed to recommend programs that provide funding in proportion to the low- to moderate-income population throughout the Community Development (CD) Districts."
