Re: Pending State Legislation for Council Consideration

Attached is a City of Oakland 2013-14 Legislative Report (updated Friday, March 1, 2013) prepared by the City's contract lobbyist Townsend Public Affairs, Inc. The report lists the pending state legislation considered by Townsend to be of greatest interest to the City. The choice of bills reflects City priorities, notably public safety, successor legislation to redevelopment funding, affordable housing, and environmental quality. Of special importance are bills in these priority categories that are authored by Oakland's state legislators -- Senator Hancock and Assemblymembers Skinner and Bonta -- and Senate and Assembly leadership.

Townsend's Northern California Director Niccolo De Luca will be present at the Rules & Legislation Committee meeting of March 21, 2013 to provide an update on bills on the matrix and answer questions as we Councilmembers consider which of these to recommend for City Council support.
