Hambrecht & Quist. (1973-1989). Trained as a Financial Analyst, and achieved the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation. Most of my working years were with investment banks -- 17 of which were with Hambrecht & Quist. My early work experience related strictly to financial analysis, e.g. tracing cash flows from an Income Statement to the Source & Use of Funds Statement, and then to the Balance Sheet. In later years I was doing Investment Banking (helping companies raise money) and Venture Capital (investing in start-up companies).

My formal title at Hambrecht & Quist was General Whatnot. This reflected the fact that I was assigned the non-technology client companies. For example, Dreyers Ice Cream, which we took public, and for whom we later raised $100 million via a bond issuance. Other local companies were Harper Robinson (maritime logistics), Fair Issacs (credit scoring) and U. S. Leasing (equipment leasing).

Alameda County Planning Commission (1990-2002). Chaired the Commission when the last General Plan was adopted. Named a State of California Planning Commissioner of the Year (2001).

Chabot Space & Science Center, 1998 – 2006. Treasurer for 6 years.

I have served on several other commissions/committees including the Alameda County Economic Development Advisory Board, the Community Advisory Working Group to the Alameda County Transportation Authority and, currently the Oakland Board of Port Commissioners.)

I have served as a Director of seven companies, all but one of which were private companies. The largest company had revenues of $107 million.
