RECOMMENDATION

Staff Recommends That The Public Safety Committee Receive An Informational Report With Information Regarding Internal Affairs Investigations, Police Personnel Trainings, Updates To Police Policy, And Recent Developments In Police Discipline.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report is responsive to a request from the Oakland Office of the City Attorney (OCA) concerning police training regarding discipline, policy, and accountability within the Oakland Police Department (OPD). The request was based on a recommendation from a report filed with the United States District Court, Northern District of California ("the Court"), concerning discipline in OPD. The report to the Court is a result of litigation initially involving the City of Oakland in the Delphine Allen v. City of Oakland matter and ultimately identifying a concern with the imposition of discipline in OPD. This report covers January 1 through March 31, 2018.

BACKGROUND / LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On April 16, 2015, the court-appointed attorney investigator, Ed Swanson, filed a report with the Court, resulting from a court-ordered investigation of discipline within OPD. This report ("First Swanson Report") included factual findings and recommendations regarding police discipline in Oakland. On March 21, 2016, the Second Report of the Court-Appointed Investigator in Delphine Allen v. City of Oakland ("Second Swanson Report") was filed with the Court.

The Second Swanson Report included 14 recommendations, primarily for OCA and OPD. Included was a recommendation that:

OCA should report to City Council quarterly on recent arbitration decisions, its efforts to support the police discipline process, and recent developments in police discipline. OPD should simultaneously provide a separate quarterly report to the City Council regarding IAD [Internal Affairs Division] investigations, police personnel trainings, updates to police policy, and recent developments in police discipline. Both OPD and OCA should simultaneously provide their reports to the Mayor and City Administrator.

This report is responsive to the OPD portion of the above recommendation.

ANALYSIS AND POLICY ALTERNATIVES

Internal Affairs Division Investigations

As a participant in the White House Police Data Initiative, OPD provides a number of metrics on its website on a regular basis. One of these is a quarterly report providing investigation information from the Internal Affairs Division (IAD). The report for the First Quarter 2018 Year-to-date) IAD Report is provided as Attachment A. This report provides several important pieces of information, including:

- The number of cases investigated
- The number of allegations investigated
- The type of discipline recommended
- Specific Manual of Rules violations and the number of allegations of each

Police Personnel Trainings

There were no personnel-related trainings during the first quarter of 2018. There were personnel-related trainings provided during the second quarter of 2018 and those will be reported on in the next quarterly report.

Updates to Police Policy

During the first quarter of 2018, OPD redesigned the Department General Order (DGO) format to replace the Lexipol format.

Swanson Report Recommendations about Discipline

To help with police discipline, the First Swanson Report<sup>1</sup> recommended the appointment of a Civilian Manager position in IAD. The Second Swanson Report<sup>2</sup> recommended that the IAD Civilian Manager develop institutional memory within IAD through the development of an IAD manual. An IAD Civilian Manager was hired in October of 2015.

Regarding the Second Swanson Report recommendations for the OPD IAD manual, OPD has an IAD manual that the IAD Civilian Manager revised. A completed draft of the entire manual was promulgated in June 2017. It has been reviewed by the Independent Monitoring Team (IMT) and has been updated to include IMT recommendations. The policy manual has since been reviewed by OCA and is undergoing final formatting and editing by OPD.

As part of the police discipline process, OPD examines whether a supervisor ordered or otherwise caused the misconduct in question. OPD has further developed the Member/Employee Accountability Section of the Report of Investigation to include two subsections. The first addresses whether any member or employee observed misconduct or was otherwise aware of it. The second subsection addresses whether any supervisor ordered or caused the action which led to the violation. OPD developed a process for commanders to review prior discipline issues to determine if adequate supervision was provided for all current disciplinary cases.

Number of Complaints Received 2011 – March 21, 2018

At the November 15, 2016 Public Safety Committee meeting, staff was asked to provide the overall number of Internal Affairs cases for previous years and the overall number of Internal Affairs allegations for previous years. Table 1 provides an annual breakdown.

When OPD conducts an investigation regarding an allegation of misconduct of an employee and the finding is sustained, OPD looks at the accountability of the supervisor, manager, or commander to ascertain if they are in compliance.

Supervisor Discipline for All Allegations

At the October 10, 2017 Public Safety Committee meeting, staff was asked to provide the number of allegations that resulted in discipline against supervisors, not just those that were based on failure to supervise. Table 3 provides a breakdown.
