WHEREAS, the Agency and OBRA, after the Department of the Navy ("Navy") refused to convey title to the NMCO Parcel to OBRA, filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court, Northern District of California, against the United States of America and the Navy, among others, to compel the Navy to convey said parcels of land to OBRA to fulfill its obligation under federal military base closure laws; and

WHEREAS, the District Court, on August 27, 2003, ruled in favor of the Agency and OBRA thereby compelling the Navy to convey title to the NMCO Parcel to OBRA pursuant to the requirements of federal military base closure laws; and

WHEREAS, the Navy, in lieu of conveying title to the NMCO Parcel, offered to pay OBRA and the Agency $2,100,000 to satisfy its obligations under federal military base closure laws; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the Agency to accept the $2,100,000 as payment in full of the loan made to OBRA and to release any interests it may have in the NMCO Parcel and the development thereof; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Agency Counsel is authorized and directed to compromise and settle the case of Oakland Redevelopment Agency, et al., v.
