WHEREAS, the majority of Oakland residents are renters; and

WHEREAS, seventy-five percent (75%) of respondents in the 2018 City of Oakland Budget Priorities Survey consider homelessness or housing one of the top two issues they would like to see addressed in the City's next budget; and

WHEREAS, the Oakland City Council recognizes that displacement of tenants is a major and critical concern and the Council is interested in establishing and implementing laws and policies that will help to maintain the ability of people in all income categories to live in our fabulous city; and
