WHEREAS, on January 24, 2015 the Oakland City Council held a Special Hearing on Black Lives Matter and related protests that sought to redress inequities in the law enforcement and criminal justice systems; and

WHEREAS, advocates, protestors, residents and Oakland community members have identified the lack of local residents working in the policy force as a critical concern that negatively impacts community-police relations and have called upon on the City of Oakland to hire more Oakland residents and to hire more racially diverse officers; and

WHEREAS, President Barack Obama established the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing to strengthen community policing and trust among law enforcement officers and communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, the President's Task Force recommends that "Law enforcement agencies should strive to create a workforce that contains a broad range of diversity including race, gender, language, sexual orientation, life experience, and cultural background to improve understanding and effectiveness in dealing with all communities," as a means to manage bias; and

WHEREAS, as of December 31, 2014, only 7% of Oakland Police Department (OPD) sworn officers reside in the City of Oakland, according to the February 2015 OPD Monthly Staffing Report; and

WHEREAS, as of December 31, 2014, the racial breakdown of sworn OPD officers is reported as follows:

- 12.25% are Asian
- 18.3% are African American/Black
- 22.5% are Latino

41.8% are white
and 5.2% identify as other; and

WHEREAS, according to the 2010 United States Census, the racial breakdown of Oakland residents is as follows:

16.8% are Asian
28% are African American/Black
25.4%% are Latino/Hispanic
34.5% are white; and

WHEREAS, the Oakland Police Department has established a partnership with Merritt College and is engaged in other measures including its partnership with local high schools and its cadet program, however the number of Oakland residents who apply are very low and the number accepted into the Academy are even lower; and

WHEREAS, the Oakland Municipal Code permits such ad-hoc committees to form in order to conduct City business, as long as they abide by the open meeting requirements of the Brown Act; and

WHEREAS, Chief Sean Whent, in a spirit of collaboration is seeking community feedback in order to generate new approaches that will increase the recruitment, hiring, and retention of Oakland residents and a diverse and inclusive Oakland Police force; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the City Administrator will designate staff to manage the Ad-Hoc Working Group on Oakland Police Recruitment; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That each City Councilmember will designate 2 representatives to participate in the Ad-Hoc Working Group, including but not limited to faith leaders, violence prevention leaders, educators, employment and human resource specialists; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That representatives of the Ad-Hoc Working Group will not have access to personnel records or employee records, but will be provided with data and information to enable them to understand recruitment and retention trends, gaps, and changes; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: The Ad-Hoc Working Group will focus on the following tasks:

- Evaluate gaps in yielding Oakland residents and applicants of color in OPD's current recruitment strategies,
- Develop strategies for recruitment of a more equitable and Oakland-based police force
- Brainstorm a list of places where OPD can share academy information, offer recruiting workshops, or post job opportunities,
- Identify external issues which hinder Oakland residents and people of color to apply to OPD,

- Suggest ways in which the Oakland Police Department can build relationships with institutions that can recommend the Oakland Police Academy to students or job-seekers, as well as to develop a list of potential partners institutions
- Evaluate economic and non-economic incentives to recruit and retain residency of OPD officers in Oakland
- Ways of expanding partnerships with Merritt College to strengthen the pipeline of Oakland residents to OPD Police Academy
- Explore requirement for Oakland police officers to live within a reasonable driving distance from Oakland to ensure rapid response times in emergency situations
- And any related discussions; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Ad-Hoc Working Group is established for a limited and temporary purpose and will automatically disband upon completion of the work and presentation of findings to the Public Safety Committee and/or City Council; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That staff and the Ad-Hoc Working Group will report to the Public Safety Committee with recommendations, ideas, and analysis within six months of the Ad-Hoc Working Group's first meeting.
