OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION NO. _____ C.M.S.

INTRODUCED BY COUNCILMEMBER NOEL GALLO

ADOPT A RESOLUTION IN CELEBRATION OF THE LEGACY OF CESAR CHAVEZ BY RECOGNIZING VOLUNTEERISM AND GIVING BACK TO OAKLAND THROUGH LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

WHEREAS, Cesar Chavez was an American farm worker, labor leader and civil rights activist, who, with Dolores Huerta, co-founded the National Farm Workers Association; and

WHEREAS, Cesar Chavez believed in the principles of nonviolence practiced by Mahatma Gandhi and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and employed nonviolent means to bring attention to the plight of farm workers, and as a labor leader, led marches, called for boycotts and went on several hunger strikes and brought national awareness to the dangers of pesticides to workers' health; and

WHEREAS, the influence of Cesar Chavez extends far beyond agriculture and provides inspirations for individuals working to better human rights, empower workers, and advance the American Dream, which is for all people of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the legacy of Cesar Chavez lives on through the leadership and activism of Oaklanders who today continue to practice Cesar Chavez' efforts and core values of Service to Others, Sacrifice, A Preference to Help the Most Needy, Determination, Non-Violence, Acceptance of all People, Respect for Life, Celebrating Community, Knowledge and Innovation; and

WHEREAS, Oakland City Council Members are nominating community leaders that represent the legacy of Cesar Chavez through their leadership and community service to the City of Oakland; and

WHEREAS, District 2 is honoring Mujeres Unidas Y Activas (MUA), which is a membership-based Latina immigrant community organization that impacts the lives of thousands of immigrant women throughout the Bay Area each year, through MUA's leadership development and direct service programs which are offered and implemented by Latina immigrant members, and recognizing MUA's mission of promoting personal transformation while building community power for social and economic justice. MUA's staff and members have ensured that immigrant women have access to prenatal care in California, improved access to translation services in Alameda County hospitals and clinics, spearheaded efforts to successfully pass and implement the California Domestic Worker Bill of Rights through extensive community outreach and education efforts, and build national and international movements for domestic worker dignity. MUA has been at the forefront of the movements to end family separations, ensure legal representation for immigrant families facing deportation, demand the right to asylum, and build a pathway to citizenship for all immigrants. MUA is recognized in the city of Oakland as a national model for Latina immigrant empowerment and organizing in a sustainable, grassroots, membership-led organization; and

WHEREAS, District 4 is honoring René Quiñonez, who is owner of the Movement Ink appeal store and art gallery; and

WHEREAS, District 5 is honoring Chris Iglesias, who is a visionary leader who has dedicated his career to executing a social equity agenda through innovative and strategic public-private partnerships. Chris Iglesias commitment to low-income and immigrant families in Oakland is extraordinary. His everyday work reflects the values of the organization and brings The Unity Council closer to fulfilling its vision for a joyful, united, and engaged community where people have the power to shape their lives. His leadership inspires the Unity Council's dedicated staff to continue the fight against poverty and displacement and preserve the rich culture and diversity of Oakland; and

WHEREAS, District At- Large honoring Mr. Gary Jimenez, who is the Vice President of Politics at SEIU Local 1021 and a custodian at Fremont Unified School District, and has been a labor and community leader in Oakland for over two decades. Council President Kaplan would like to recognize Mr. Jimenez as a person who embodies Cesar Chavez' core value of service to others with a long and proven track record of working with and listening to all communities and for advocating for those whose voices are so often unheard; and

WHEREAS, the Office of the Mayor is honoring Gema Quetzal Cardenas, who is an Oakland student leader, was appointed by Governor Jerry Brown to represent California's 6.2 million students as the sole student representative on the state Board of Education for the 2018-19 school year; and

WHEREAS, the City of Oakland continues the efforts of Cesar Chavez to ensure equality, justice, and dignity for all the people; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the City of Oakland recognizes Cesar Chavez as a great hero of the United States and pledges to promote the legacy of Cesar Chavez; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Oakland City Council, hereby, recognizes, commends and honors these individuals and organizations for their exemplary volunteerism and leadership to the City of Oakland and pledges to promote the legacy of Cesar Chavez.
