2.29.160.2.

The definitions in this section apply throughout this ordinance unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Access to the determinants of equity is necessary to have equity for all people regardless of race, class, gender or language spoken. Inequities are created when barriers exist that prevent individuals and communities from accessing these conditions and reaching their full potential. The determinants of equity are:
 - 1. Community economic development that supports local ownership of assets, including homes and businesses, and assures fair access for all to business development and business retention opportunities;
 - 2. Community and public safety that includes services such as fire, police, emergency medical services and code enforcement that are responsive to all residents so that everyone feels safe to live, work and play in any neighborhood in Oakland;

 10. Housing for all people that is safe, affordable, high quality and healthy;
 11. Job training and jobs that provide all residents with the knowledge and skills to compete in a diverse workforce and with the ability to make sufficient income for the purchase of basic necessities to support them and their families;
 12. Neighborhoods that support all communities and individuals through strong social networks, trust among neighbors and the ability to work together to achieve common goals that improve the quality of life for everyone in the neighborhood;

- C. "Equity" means all people have full and equal access to opportunities that enable them to attain their full potential.

- D. “Equity and social justice foundational practices” means those practices that can increase the city's influence on access to the determinants of equity when applied to the city's actions in: siting and delivery of services; policy development and decision making; education and communication within city government; and community engagement and partnerships. Equity and social justice foundational practices are goals for all governmental actions; across citywide strategic goals, objectives and strategies; and across agencies, programs and services. - E. “Fair and just” means the city serves all residents by promoting fairness and opportunity and eliminating inequities through actions to which equity and social justice foundational practices are applied.
- F. “Inequity” means differences in well-being that disadvantage one individual or group in favor of another. These differences are systematic, patterned and unfair and can be changed. Inequities are not random; they are caused by past and current decisions, systems of power and privilege, policies and the implementation of those policies.
