RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends that the City Council adopt the proposed ordinance authorizing a FY 2012-13 adjustment, consistent with the Consumer Price Index (CPI), to the special parcel tax for the Violence Prevention and Public Safety Act of 2004.

OUTCOME

Adjustment of the FY 2012-13 special parcel tax for the Violence Prevention and Public Safety Act of 2004, consistent with the Consumer Price Index (CPI).

BACKGROUND/LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

In November 2004, the City of Oakland voters approved the Violence Prevention and Public Safety Act of 2004. The measure imposes a parking surcharge on commercial parking lots and a parcel tax for the purpose of raising revenue necessary to fund such activities as community and neighborhood policing, violence prevention services with an emphasis on youth, and fire services. The Measure Y legislation authorizes the City Council to levy parcel tax assessments and a parking surcharge beginning FY 2005-06. A Ballot Initiative in November 2010 saw the passing of Measure BB, which suspended the 739 police officer staffing threshold mandated by Measure Y and allowed for the continued collection of the parcel tax and parking surcharge.

The Measure Y legislation authorizes the City Council to increase the tax rates by a cost-of-living factor beginning in Fiscal Year 2005-06 and continuing each fiscal year thereafter. Staff is proposing a 2.6 percent increase to Measure Y special parcel tax rates and a parking surcharge for FY 2012-13, consistent with the CPI increase for the San Francisco Bay Area during calendar year 2011. If approved, this would be the fourth CPI increase for Measure Y since its enactment.

Item: _____
City Council
June 5, 2012

Beginning in FY 2005-06 and continuing each fiscal year thereafter, the Measure Y legislation allows the City Council to adjust the tax rates in accordance with the CPI for the immediate San Francisco Bay Area. At no time, however, may the rates be increased by more than 5.0 percent of the tax rates imposed by ordinance during the immediate preceding fiscal year. No rate increases have been requested through FY 2008-09. FY 2009-10 marked the first year that a CPI increase would apply to Measure Y since its enactment. However, although the 0.7% increase was approved in June 2010, no taxes were collected due to the proposed amendment of Measure Y. There was a 2 year levy in FY11-12 as taxes were also levied for FY10-11 due to the passing of Measure BB.

ANALYSIS

The proposed ordinance applies an adjustment of 2.6 percent to the current Measure Y special parcel tax amount, effective July 1, 2012. This increase is per the actual change in the San Francisco Bay Area CPI during calendar year 2011. The proposed increase applies on a fiscal year basis (i.e., July 1st –June 30th).

The following table summarizes the impact of the proposed increases by parcel type:

Proposed Measure Y Tax Increases by Parcel Type
Parcel Type	Current Parcel Rate	Proposed Increase	FY 2012-13 Parcel Rate
Single Family Residential Parcels	$92.63	$2.41	$95.05
Multiple Unit Residential Parcels	$63.29	$1.65	$64.94
Non Residential Parcels	$47.44	$1.23	$48.68
