OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION NO. _____ C.M.S.

INTRODUCED BY COUNCIL PRESIDENT NIKKI FORTUNATO BAS
AND VICE MAYOR REBECCA KAPLAN

RESOLUTION DIRECTING THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT TO SCHEDULE
A MEETING WITH THE ALAMEDA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TO DISCUSS AND DEVELOP PLANS FOR COORDINATION OF HOMELESSNESS AND PUBLIC HEALTH
SOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, the homelessness crisis impacts Oaklanders profoundly, with serious public health and safety consequences on our communities, and with Oakland's unsheltered residents among the most vulnerable populations in the world; and

WHEREAS, over 4,000 unsheltered people live and sleep on Oakland's streets, and 82% of Alameda County's unsheltered lived in Oakland prior to becoming homeless<sup>1</sup>; and

WHEREAS, according to Oakland's recent homelessness audit report in 2021 the City of Oakland has spent at least $12.6 million over the past two fiscal years, mostly unbudgeted funds, to manage citywide encampments, and lacks a comprehensive plan, with clearly defined outcomes, goals and key performance indicators, to adequately address homelessness<sup>2</sup>; and

WHEREAS, according to Alameda County's 2019 Homeless Persons Point-In-Time count, over half (51%) of the County's unsheltered residents are residing in Oakland, which is a similar percentage distribution to the 2017 findings<sup>3</sup>; and

WHEREAS, in 2017 Alameda County's Homeless Persons Point-In-Time Count, 2,761 homeless persons were counted in the City of Oakland<sup>4</sup>; and

WHEREAS, homelessness in Alameda County has doubled since 2015, from 2017 to 2019, homelessness in Oakland grew by an unprecedented 47 percent<sup>5</sup>; and

WHEREAS, with the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, homelessness has become more urgent than ever, as residents simultaneously grapple with the economic crisis, housing instability due to job loss, and other unforeseen challenges; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations called the scope and severity of the Bay Area homeless crisis “one of the most pervasive violations of human rights globally”<sup>6</sup>; and

WHEREAS, In the City’s Equity Indicators Report, Oakland scored a 1 for homelessness, as African Americans make up 70% of Oakland’s homeless population but only 24% of the City’s population<sup>7</sup>; and

WHEREAS, according to Alameda County’s EveryOne Home Strategic Update in 2018, for every two people who become homeless for the first time in Alameda County, only one returns to permanent housing, and homelessness will increase by 1,500 people per year if these rates continue<sup>8</sup>; and

WHEREAS, the City of Oakland oversees homeless shelter programs while Alameda County is responsible for public health, including behavioral health, mental health and other healthcare issues for unsheltered residents; and

WHEREAS, in November 2020, Alameda County voters passed a sales tax measure, Measure W to add an additional 0.50% sales tax, estimated to raise $150 million annually to fund homelessness programs, such as rapid rehousing, rental subsidies, emergency shelters, and permanent supportive housing, in accordance with recommendations of the Home Together 2020 Plan; and

WHEREAS, Alameda County has discussed plans to allocate funding from Measure W to cities and unincorporated areas based on their population of unsheltered residents; and

WHEREAS, the City of Oakland’s Human Service Department and Alameda County’s homeless outreach teams and Healthcare for the Homeless (ACHCH) work together to address the needs of residents in Oakland’s street encampments, however, City Councilmembers and County Supervisors have not coordinated around a joint homelessness strategy, policies, or budgetary issues, despite how large the problem has grown, specifically in Oakland; and

WHEREAS, the City of Oakland and Alameda County would both benefit greatly from closer collaboration at the policy and fiscal levels around their collective homelessness work; and

WHEREAS, currently, there are no formal venues for the elected representatives of the Oakland City Council and Alameda County Board of Supervisors to advance homelessness work or develop strategies, while some municipalities, such as the City of Portland Oregon, have worked to create the Joint Office of Homeless Services to interface with Multnomah County, in order to better advance policies and programs to address homelessness; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That City Council President Nikki Fortunato Bas shall reach out to Alameda County Board of Supervisors President Keith Carson to coordinate convening a joint publicly-noticed meeting with the Alameda County Board of Supervisors to discuss the two entities' joint homeless strategies and programs, including policies and budget items, including the use of Measure W funds to be utilized for programs in the City of Oakland, and a priority for County and state funding for homelessness solutions in the City of Oakland; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That City Council President Nikki Fortunato Bas shall coordinate with the Alameda County Board of Supervisors President Keith Carson to discuss Oakland's priorities for homelessness on behalf of the City Council and agenda for the joint City-County public meeting.
