WHEREAS, in 2014, Oakland voters passed Measure CC, with 73.9% of voter support, adding Section 603 to the City Charter to significantly strengthen the independence, authority, and staffing of the Public Ethics Commission (Commission); and

WHEREAS, the Commission's workload and responsibilities have increased significantly since the passage of Measure CC; and

WHEREAS, after ten years, the provisions in Section 603 no longer reflect the Commission's actual staffing and budgetary needs and have not kept pace with best practices in other jurisdictions for ensuring ethics commission independence; and

WHEREAS, on April 10, 2024, the Commission adopted a set of recommendations to strengthen its independence, modernize its governance procedures to align with best practices in other jurisdictions, and enhance its staffing and administrative capacity to meet current program needs; and

WHEREAS, there have been no significant revisions to the Commission’s governance structure since 2014; and
