Biography

Deborah L. Taylor is a native of California and resides in Oakland. Ms. Taylor is owner of DEVONSHIRE Management Group, a fundraising and event management firm specializing in political campaigns. She started her fundraising career in 1980 with former Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr. (Mayor of Oakland). During the 1980's, Ms. Taylor was very active in Democratic Party politics. She was elected twice by voters to the Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee; served as National Committee Delegate to the Democratic Party Nominating Convention in 1984, 88 and 1992 and was the Finance Director for the California Democratic Party in 1994.

Ms. Taylor's fundraising client list mirrors her activism. She has worked with Bay Area legislators Congresswoman Barbara Lee and Assemblywoman Wilma Chan and, activists organizations Rainforest Action Network and Americans for Democratic Action. Ms. Taylor served on the legislative staff of Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina and former State Senator now Congresswoman Diane E. Watson. As a legislative deputy, Ms. Taylor's primary oversight was economic development, job training and parks.

In addition to campaign fundraising, Devonshire Management Group provides consultant service for event planning and implementation, sponsorship recruitment, strategic planning and outreach and public relations for non-profit organizations and businesses.

Ms. Taylor civic services include Commissioner, City of Oakland Charter Review Board, Parent Representative, Oakland Military Institute College Academy and member of the Oakland Ballet Gala 2002 Committee. She has also served as a Commissioner for the Los Angeles County Child Support Advisory Board, the San Fernando Valley Mobility Action Committee and the Pacoima Enterprise Zone. Her community Board service includes the Oakland Opera Theater, Heal the Bay, Bridgefocus, the Pacoima Youth Coordinating Committee, the Los Angeles Women's Appointment Collaboration and the Women's Foundation.

Ms. Taylor is a graduate of California State University Hayward (CSUH) where she received her Bachelor of Arts in Human Development.
