BRYAN A. THOMPSON

OBJECTIVE

EXPERIENCE

2007–present APM Terminals Pacific Ltd. Oakland, CA
Assistant Operations Manager, Marine Operations

Reporting to the Marine Manager, I serve as an operational manager with responsibilities in operational planning, operational implementation/management, and personnel management including payroll, scheduling, and disciplinary action. I serve on the Labor Relations Committee in which I along with other employer and union representatives hear grievances and provide binding resolutions. I am tasked with communicating through written and oral reports with senior terminal management regarding operational updates and analysis. I have developed several tracking tools and utilized many resources to ensure cost efficiency and productivity. Working with the ILWU workforce I manage and direct the work of 20-100 longshoremen each day with direct responsibility of a budget averaging $400,000 monthly.

2003–2005 Tire Sales and Service Co. Oakland, CA
Sales/Office Manager

Under the direction of the owner, I served as the sales and office manager. In this capacity I was responsible for daily accounting, personnel management, various operational analysis and projects. During my tenure I implemented a computerized merchandise tracking/ordering system to ensure the necessary products were in stock and available for purchase.
