Resolution No. _____ C.M.S.

INTRODUCED BY COUNCIL PRESIDENT PATRICIA KERNIGHAN

RECOGNIZING THE 9TH GRADUATING CLASS OF THE CITY OF OAKLAND'S OAKLAND CITY ACADEMY

WHEREAS; Fall 2014 marks the celebration of the graduation of 30 students from the 9th City Academy, which was formerly known as the City of Oakland Citizen's Academy; and

WHEREAS, the City Academy was founded by the City Manager's Office, later implemented by the Equal Access Office, and is now a program of the Neighborhood Services Division; and

WHEREAS, the City Academy is an innovative program created to foster civic engagement by educating and training a diversity of residents in the functions of local government, and in civic and political issues in order to broaden resident participation; and

WHEREAS, the City Academy employs a variety of practical and strategic approaches to effectively train and engage a cross-section of city residents in City government; and

WHEREAS, City Academy graduates serve as community liaisons, resource leaders and educators for the City of Oakland's government services and programs; and

WHEREAS, City Academy graduates provide a direct channel for constituents to learn how the City of Oakland operates, particularly regarding how policies are set and decisions made; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council hereby honors and recognizes the 30 graduates of the City of Oakland's 9th Oakland City Academy on this day, Tuesday, November 18, 2014.
