At present: board-member of, United Seniors of Oakland and Alameda County. We are a board-based and innovative collaboration of community organizations providing support for Seniors: in the public arena; addressing critical issues; bringing change to conditions that impact their lives/livelihood; employed by the City of Oakland, in the ASSETS Program, as an Employment Specialist, helping Seniors to get back into the work force. I have worked on Campaigns for, Assemblyman Sandre Swanson and City Councilman/Congressman, now Mayor Ron Dellums, who is a personal friend; I worked with him prior to him going to grad-school, at University of California.

I have been an advocate for Senior and Youth Rights since the 60's and I have ideas on how we to combat youth crimes and make thing better for seniors in our City, given the opportunity as a commissioner, on the Mayor Commission for Aging.
