OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION No. 80369 C.M.S.

RESOLUTION COMMENDING OAKLAND YOUTH ORCHESTRA ON ITS 43RD SEASON OF OUTSTANDING MUSICAL PERFORMANCES

WHEREAS, the Oakland Youth Orchestra was founded in 1964 as the educational arm of what was then the Oakland Symphony, and is now an independent group that has embarked on its 43rd season of outstanding musical performances; and

WHEREAS, to open this season, the Oakland Youth Orchestra has partnered with community organization such as Oakland Rotary to present community concerts; and

WHEREAS, the Oakland Youth Orchestra features 76 talented musicians ranging in age from 12 to 20 years old, draws members from throughout the Bay Area, and is ably conducted by Bryan Nies as Principal Conductor; and

WHEREAS, the Oakland Youth Orchestra has toured extensively in Europe, Asia, the Middle East, Australia and New Zealand, the Caribbean Islands, Costa Rica, Mexico and Cuba, and been termed by Artistic Director Michael Morgan as "an excitement that has to be experienced in person;" and

WHEREAS, the Oakland Youth Orchestra has just performed a highly successful winter concert on January 28 at the First Congregational Church; now

THEREFORE; the Oakland City Council does commend the Oakland Youth Orchestra, where education meets performance, for the excellence of its programs, while urging all Oaklanders to support this admirable organization.
