Jim Hill - Bio

Jim has over 28 years of experience in the insurance industry. His background includes management level responsibility in financial analysis & planning, marketing, claims administration and underwriting. He has extensive experience working with large specialized commercial risks, including but not limited to public entities, large self-insureds and alternative risk financing programs (JPA's, risk-retention groups, captives).

Jim started his insurance career in 1981 with the Travelers Insurance Company and he assumed positions of increasing responsibility within the organization. Jim later joined Industrial Indemnity Company, a large regional Workers Compensation carrier, and served as an Assistant Director in their Headquarters. Industrial subsequently merged with Crum & Forster Insurance and Jim was instrumental in the transition of the Casualty Property operations to the new company. Jim also served as Executive Director of the Oakland Association of Insurance Agents and was responsible for their community and government relations. He served on the Legislative Committee of IBA West for 6 years.

Jim's commitment to his community is a driving force in his life. He has volunteered in many areas having served on the Board of Directors for several local non-profit organizations, including Fred Finch Youth Center, Bay Area Community Services and Family Bridges. He is also a mentor for local youth in East Oakland and recently received a Community Service Award from the prestigious Oral Lee Brown foundation.

Jim is a graduate of California State University, Hayward where he majored in Business Administration (Finance). He is certified as an Associate in Risk Management (ARM) and also received his designation in Risk Management for Public Entities (ARM-P). Jim is a Veteran of the Armed Services having served honorably in the United States Air Force for four years.
