WHEREAS, quality affordable housing is vital to healthy, safe, vibrant, and diverse communities; and

WHEREAS, affordable homes are the solution to homelessness, and provide support to seniors, families, youth, veterans, and people with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, non-profit organizations, local jurisdictions, community organizations and many others continue to build inclusive communities by providing shelter, homes and support for low-income people and those with special needs; and

WHEREAS, local jurisdictions like Oakland can play an important role by supporting investments in affordable housing including a county-wide Housing Bond that provides funding for the creation of new affordable housing and a city-wide infrastructure bond that supports the rehabilitation and preservation of existing affordable housing; and
