EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Adoption of the draft ordinance of March 20, 2018 would be a violation of the City Charter and inconsistent with the City Attorney's legal opinion. This report provides the following content for the City Council's consideration:

Attachment A - Draft Ordinance (1) Enabling Implementation Of The City Charter Amendment Creating The Oakland Police Commission And The Community Police Review Agency, (2) Establishing A Civilian Inspector General, And (3) Requiring An Annual Report And Presentation By The Community Policing Advisory Board To The Commission, as last amended by the City Council at its meeting of March 20, 2018 and submitted to the Police Commission for review and comment.

Attachment B - Memorandum from the Oakland Police Commission to the Oakland City Council dated April 30, 2018 transmitting recommendations regarding the draft ordinance.

Item: _____
City Council
June 19, 2018

Attachment C - Memorandum from the Selection Panel for the Police Commission to the Oakland City Council dated May 23, 2018 transmitting recommendations regarding the draft ordinance.

Attachment D - Legal Opinion from the City Attorney to President Reid and Members of the City Council regarding the Appointing Authority Over Staff to the Oakland Police Commission Item 11 on the Council's March 20, 2018 Agenda.

BACKGROUND/LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On November 8, 2016, Oakland voters approved Measure LL with 83.19% (137,032 votes) in favor of the measure. Measure LL establishes a Police Commission to oversee the Police Department's policies and procedures, and a Community Police Review Agency (CPRA) to investigate police misconduct and recommend discipline. The Police Commission is comprised of seven regular and two alternate members. All commissioners are Oakland residents and serve in a volunteer capacity.

The Measure LL City Charter amendment allows for "enabling legislation" that furthers the goals and purposes of Measure LL. The City Council has discussed adopting enabling legislation and at its July 18, 2017 meeting, the Council directed the City Administrator to offer meet and confer with the applicable labor unions, as required by state law, over the relevant provisions of the draft Police Commission Enabling Ordinance; and to return to the City Council after the completion of the meet and confer process.

City staff facilitated the meet and confer process based on the July 18, 2017 draft Police Commission Enabling Ordinance, which has been concluded. The City Council heard the item at its Closed Session meeting on February 6, 2018.

At the March 20, 2018 City Council meeting, the City Council made changes to the draft ordinance prepared by the City Attorney's Office and submitted this draft to the Police Commission for review and comment within forty-five (45) days, consistent with the City Charter.

On April 30, 2018, the Police Commission transmitted its recommendations regarding the draft ordinance to the City Council via the City Clerk.

ANALYSIS AND POLICY ALTERNATIVES

The City Attorney's Office has not approved the draft ordinance as to form and legality. The draft ordinance is inconsistent with the City Attorney's legal opinion dated March 20, 2018.

While the voter-approved Measure LL City Charter amendment partially exempts the Director of the CPRA from the appointing authority of the City Administrator, all other City positions fall under the City Administrator's appointing authority and the Police Commission Enabling Ordinance requires clarification to ensure this consistency and compliance with the City Charter.

FISCAL IMPACT

The complete fiscal impact associated with the implementation of Measure LL establishing the Police Commission and the draft Police Commission Enabling Ordinance is unknown. For the FY 2018-19 Mid-Cycle Budget Amendments, the Police Commission has requested a budget of $126,000 that has been included in the FY 2018-19 Proposed Mid-Cycle Budget currently under deliberations by the City Council.

The draft Police Commission Enabling Ordinance includes several sections that reference the allocation of a sufficient budget for the following that are not clearly defined at this time:

1. Staff positions for the civilian Office of the Inspector General,
2. Staff positions and training to support the Police Commission, and
3. Additional staff positions to support the CPRA.

COORDINATION

This report was drafted in coordination of the Office of the City Attorney.

ACTION REQUESTED OF THE CITY COUNCIL

OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL

ORDINANCE NO. _____ C.M.S.

ADOPT AN ORDINANCE (1) ENABLING IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CITY CHARTER AMENDMENT CREATING THE OAKLAND POLICE COMMISSION AND THE COMMUNITY POLICE REVIEW AGENCY, (2) ESTABLISHING A CIVILIAN INSPECTOR GENERAL, AND (3) REQUIRING AN ANNUAL REPORT AND PRESENTATION BY THE COMMUNITY POLICING ADVISORY BOARD TO THE COMMISSION

WHEREAS, On April 15, 1980, the City Council established the Citizens' Police Review Board (hereinafter, Board) with jurisdiction to review certain complaints alleging Oakland Police Department (hereinafter, Department) officer and park ranger misconduct, to conduct fact-finding investigations, and to make advisory reports to the City Administrator. On July 30, 1996, the City Council expanded the Board's jurisdiction to include complaints involving the excessive use of force, and bias based on an individual's legally protected status (race, gender, national origin, religion, sexual orientation or disability). In 2002, the City Council further expanded the Board's jurisdiction to include all complaints filed against police officers and park rangers, and expanded the Board's size from nine (9) members to twelve (12) members. The City Council also granted the Board the option of holding evidentiary hearings using three-member panels and permitted Board members to review confidential Oakland Police Department (hereinafter, Department) records in closed session. On November 12, 2002, the City Council passed Ordinance No. 12454 C.M.S., which further refined the Board's powers to include making recommendations to the City Administrator regarding litigated cases, and enlarged the amount of time for the Board to complete its investigations. However, the Board was not empowered to oversee Department policy or impose discipline; and

WHEREAS, In January 2003, the City entered into a Negotiated Settlement Agreement (hereinafter, NSA) with multiple plaintiffs who sued the City, alleging that Police Department officers violated plaintiffs' civil rights. Since implementation of the

NSA, a federal monitoring team has audited – and continues to audit – the Department’s progress in complying with each of the fifty-two (52) tasks identified in the NSA; and

WHEREAS, While some important progress has been made in recent years, public perception persists that the Department and the City do not adequately hold its officers accountable for misconduct, leading to an erosion of public trust in this process; and

WHEREAS, Maintaining public trust and confidence in the Police Department is essential for the Department to be able to provide the highest level of service to the community. In order to increase the public trust and confidence in the Department, improvements should be made to the processes for providing Department oversight and accountability. Appointing qualified members of the public to a Police Commission (hereinafter, Commission), entrusting the Commission with oversight of the Department and requiring the Commission to hold public hearings all would increase public transparency, which in turn would build a higher level of trust and confidence in the services provided by the Department; and

WHEREAS, Major cities across the country, including New York City, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, as well as medium-size cities such as Albuquerque and Honolulu have civilian police bodies with varying degrees of oversight authority over their police departments. In recent years, more and more municipal jurisdictions have involved citizens in their law enforcement review systems, and highly publicized incidents of alleged or actual police misconduct and the years-in-the-making widespread public outrage over police misconduct, especially communities of color, has brought the issue of civilian oversight to center stage in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting greater police accountability through the establishment or improvement of citizen oversight agencies, provides various resources on its website, including recommended standards and practices, which include the Police Oversight Principles of European Partners Against Corruption, which provides numerous recommendations for police oversight bodies including that they: (1) have independence from the executive branch of government; (2) are sufficiently separate from the hierarchy of the police subject to their oversight; (3) are governed by persons who are not currently serving as police officers; (4) have adequate finances and resources to perform their functions; (5) have full investigative powers regarding police misconduct allegations; and (6) are representative of a diverse population; and

WHEREAS, On November 8, 2016, the City of Oakland’s voters passed Measure LL to add Section 604 to the Oakland City Charter, setting up the establishment of the Police Commission and the Community Police Review Agency and disbanding the Citizens’ Police Review Board; and

WHEREAS, An enabling ordinance is a vital component of implementation of Measure LL, passed by the voters, because it provides more detailed information about the functions and duties of the Commission and Agency, and also because an enabling ordinance provides direction to the Commissioners and Agency staff regarding the operation of their respective entities; and

WHEREAS, While the Department currently has an in-house sworn Inspector General, one of the best models for on-going oversight of police discipline can be found in the City of Los Angeles' Office of Inspector General. The L.A. Inspector General is a civilian who is charged with conducting systemic reviews of the disciplinary process and reports directly to the City of Los Angeles' Police Commission to ensure a necessary level of independence. The creation of a civilian Inspector General to serve reporting to the Commission came from the Christopher Warren Commission reforms following the protests and riots stemming in part from the Rodney King jury verdict; and

WHEREAS, The July 2016 Report of Blue Ribbon Panel on Transparency, Accountability, and Fairness in Law Enforcement, established in 2015 as an advisory body to the San Francisco District Attorney's office, recommended the establishment of an independent Office of the Inspector General for San Francisco's Police Department; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of the Commission creates an additional potential forum for the input of the Community Policing Advisory Board to be received;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF OAKLAND DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. That the City Council hereby adopts the addition of Chapters 2.45 and 2.46 to the Oakland Municipal Code to enable the implementation of City Charter section 604 which establishes the Oakland Police Commission and the Community Police Review Agency, and to establish the Office of Inspector General and to appoint a civilian Inspector General who shall be responsible for its day-to-day operations.

SECTION 2. Title 2 of the Oakland Municipal Code is amended to add Chapter 2.45, Oakland Police Commission, which shall read as follows:

CITY OF OAKLAND

CITY HALL • 1 FRANK H. OGAWA PLAZA • OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA 94612

Police Commission

MEMORANDUM

TO: Oakland City Council

FROM: Oakland Police Commission

DATE: April 30, 2018

SUBJECT: MEASURE LL – Police Commission Enabling Ordinance

RECOMMENDATION

The Oakland Police Commission (“Commission”) discussed and analyzed the edits made to the Measure LL Enabling Ordinance by the Oakland City Council. The Commission also considered comments from the Public. This memorandum represents the Commission’s position on the Measure LL Enabling Ordinance. After considering and weighing various arguments and positions, the Police Commission recommends that that the City Council approve and adopt the positions and edits stated herein regarding these specific sections of the Enabling Ordinance:

- [1] Section 2.45.030 Selection Panel (Subsection F)
- [2] Section 2.45.070 Functions and Duties of the Commission (Subsections D, G, H, L and R)
- [3] Section 2.45.100 Office of Inspector General (Subsection B)
- [4] Section 2.45.180 Staff Assistance (Subsection B and D)

The Commission’s comments follow below:

[1] Section 2.45.030 – Selection Panel

The Commission believes that new members of the Selection Panel should receive training on Measure LL prior to conducting any business or interviews of candidates. The Police Commission believes that this training would be the most effective and convenient if provided to all members of the Section Panel, new and returning.

A Subsection F should be added to Section 2.45.030 to this effect:

F. The City Attorney’s Office shall provide the Selection Panel with an orientation to Measure LL at the Selection Panel’s first meeting in any period.

The Police Commission believes that the reference to April 30 should be replaced with March 15 as this is a date consistent with the budget deadlines for other City of Oakland Departments and Commissions. As such, Subsection D should be amended to read:

Prepare and deliver to the Mayor, the City Administrator and the Chief by ~~April 30~~ March 15 of each year, or such other date as set by the Mayor, a proposed budget for providing the education and training identified in subsection (C) above.

Subsection G of 2.45.070 currently reads:

Conduct an annual performance review of the Agency Director. The Commission shall determine the criteria for evaluating the Agency Director's job performance, and communicate those performance criteria, in addition to any other job performance expectations, to the Agency Director one full year before conducting any evaluation of her/his job performance. The Commission may, in its discretion, decide to solicit and consider, as part of its evaluation, comments and observations from the City Administrator and other City staff who are familiar with the Agency Director's job performance. Responses to the Commission's requests for comments and observations shall be strictly voluntary.

The Commission believes that the Commission should conduct performance reviews of the Chief of Police, Inspector General and the Agency Director. As such, Subsection G should be revised as follows:

Conduct an annual performance review of the Chief of Police, Inspector General and the Agency Director. The Commission shall determine the criteria for evaluating the job performance of the Chief of Police, Inspector General and the Agency Director and communicate those performance criteria, in addition to any other job performance expectations, to the Chief of Police, Inspector General and the Agency Director, one (1) full year before conducting any evaluation of her/his job performance. The Commission may, in its discretion, decide to solicit and consider, as part of its evaluation, comments and observations from the Mayor, the City Council, the City Administrator, and other City staff, and who are familiar with the Agency Director's job performance. ~~other individuals or members of the public regarding the job performance~~ of the Chief of Police, Inspector General and/or the Agency Director. Responses to the Commission's requests for comments and observations shall be strictly voluntary.

- Subsection H

Subsection H of 2.45.070 currently reads:

Provide annual comments, observations and assessments to the City Administrator regarding the Inspector General's job performance.

The Commission believes that Subsection H should be deleted in its entirety. The Commission is responsible for the Inspector General's job performance and as such, there is no need to provide annual comments, observations and assessments to the City Administrator in this regard.

- Subsection L

Subsection L of 2.45.070 currently reads:

Direct the Agency to investigate a Serious Incident when requested by the Mayor, the City Administrator and/or the City Council by an affirmative majority vote.

Subsection L should be amended as follows:

Direct the Agency to investigate a Serious Incident when requested by the Mayor, the City Administrator and/or the City Council by an affirmative majority vote. The Police Commission, on its own authority and by majority vote, shall maintain the right to direct the Agency to investigate Serious Incidents.

- Subsection R

The Commission believes that it is essential the Commission receive regular reports from the Chief of Police and other members of the Oakland Police Department. These reports should be codified in the Enabling Ordinance.

A Subsection R should be added to Section 2.45.070 to this effect:

The Police Department through the Chief of Police or his or her designee shall report to the Commission on issues requested by the Commission through the Commission's Chair and Vice Chair. The Chief of Police shall attend in person unless impracticable. Presenters from the Police Department shall be equipped with sufficient information to respond to information requested by the Commission.

[3] Section 2.45.100 - Office of Inspector General

Section 2.45.100 currently reads:

Within one hundred and eighty (180) days after the effective date of this Chapter 2.45, there shall be established, under the purview of the Commission, a civilian Office of Inspector General for the Department (hereinafter referred to as "OIG"). Within one (1) year after the City Council's confirmation of the first group of Commissioners and alternates, the Department's Internal Office of Inspector General shall be renamed. The OIG shall serve the Commission full time.

The Commission believes that it should be made clear and unequivocal that the Office of Inspector General not only serve the Commission full-time, but that the Office of Inspector General also report to, and be supervised by, the Commission. As such, the section should be amended as follows:

Within one hundred and eighty (180) days after the effective date of this Chapter 2.45, there shall be established, under the purview of the Commission, a civilian Office of Inspector General for the Department (hereinafter referred to as "OIG"). Within one (1) year after the City Council's confirmation of the first group of Commissioners and alternates, the Department's internal Office of Inspector General shall be renamed. The OIG shall serve and report to the Commission full time. The OIG shall be hired and supervised by the Commission.

- Subsection B

Subsection B of Section 2.45.100 currently reads:

B. The Chief may assign a sworn Department employee to act as a liaison from the Department to the OIG.

The Commission believes that it is important that a sworn Police Department employee liaise between the Commission and the OIG. As such Subsection B should be revised as follows:

B. The Chief ~~may~~ shall assign a sworn Department employee to act as a liaison from the Department to the OIG.

[4] Section 2.45.180 – Staff Assistance

- Subsection B

Subsection B of Section 2.45.180 currently reads:

Pursuant to City Charter section 604(e)(5) and, to the extent practicable, within one (1) week of the City Council's confirmation of the first group of Commissioners and alternates, the City Administrator shall assign an administrative staff person under her/his jurisdiction to provide administrative support to the Commission and to act as liaison between the Commission and the City Administrator's office.

The Commission believes that this Subsection B should reflect the Commission's use of a full-time Administrative Analyst II. As such, Subsection B should be amended as follows:

Pursuant to City Charter section 604(e)(5) and, to the extent practicable, within one (1) week of the City Council's confirmation of the first group of Commissioners and alternates, the City Administrator shall assign an administrative staff person under her/his jurisdiction to provide administrative support to the Commission and to act as liaison between the Commission and the City Administrator's office. This staff person shall be a full-time position and classified as an Administrative Analyst II.

- Subsection D

The Commission is in favor of non-City Attorney legal advisor to avoid potential conflicts and to avoid the appearance of impropriety with the City Attorney representing several sides of the same issue. As such, Subsection D should be added to Section 2.45.180 composed of the following:

Pursuant to City Charter Section 604(e), the full-time equivalent non-City Attorney legal advisor position assigned by the City Attorney after consultation with the Chair shall be divided into two (2) part time positions: a one-half (1/2) or two-thirds (2/3) time position with specific responsibilities for providing legal services to the Agency related to investigations and discipline, and a one-half (1/2) or one-third (1/3) time position as legal advisor to the Commission. The legal advisor to the Agency and the legal advisor to the Commission shall report to the Commission. Neither the legal advisor to the Agency nor the legal advisor to the Commission shall report to or be supervised by the City Attorney or any Deputy City Attorney. Pursuant to City Charter Section 401(6), the City Attorney shall act as counsel to the Agency and the Commission in any litigation brought against either in their official capacity and shall provide legal advice only upon request of the Commission.

Re: Appointing Authority Over Staff to the Oakland Police Commission
Item 11 on the Council's March 20, 2018 Agenda

Dear President Reid, Members of the City Council, and City Administrator Landreth:

I. Introduction

At its March 6, 2018 meeting, the Council continued item 11 "Police Commission Enabling Ordinance" to the Council's March 20, 2018 meeting. The City Administrator ("CAO") and City Attorney's Office ("OCA") requested the continuance to provide OCA time to consider the legal issues the City Administrator's February 23, 2018 report raised. Among other things, the CAO's report requested amendment of the enabling ordinance to clarify that the CAO is the appointing authority<sup>1</sup> for staff of the Community Police Review Agency (CPRA) and the staff to the Oakland Police Commission, including the civilian Inspector General and her/his staff.

This issue requires interpretation of the City Charter, regarding the relative powers of the City Council, the City Administrator and City boards/commissions and will be posted on the City Attorney's web site at www.oaklandcityattorney.org.

<sup>1</sup> "Appointing authority," as that phrase relates to the City's civil-service employees, refers to the ultimate authority an official or group of officials has to appoint or remove a particular employee. See Oakland Civil Service Rules §1.01(e). Under the Civil Service Rules and the Oakland City Charter, an employee so appointed is also evaluated and disciplined by the appointing authority and is said to be under the appointing authority's "jurisdiction."

II. Brief Explanation of Changes

We have determined that certain changes are necessary for the enabling ordinance to comply with the City Charter. Those changes are reflected in the redlined version of the ordinance that is included in the agenda packet for the March 20, 2018 meeting.

As an initial matter, it is not necessary to amend or clarify the appointing authority for CPRA staff. Charter section 604(6) gives the CPRA Director "the authority to hire and fire Agency staff, in consultation with the City Administrator." Thus, the Charter gives the CPRA Director appointing authority over CPRA staff, and this cannot be amended by ordinance.

However, if the Council authorizes administrative support for the Police Commission and/or establishes an Office of Inspector General (OIG) to audit the Police Department, the Inspector General and any other staff will be under the CAO's appointing authority; and thus cannot be under the jurisdiction of the Oakland Police Commission for purposes of personnel administration.

As we explain more fully below, the Council may budget for and require administrative support for the Police Commission. Similarly, the Council may establish an OIG, budget for OIG staff, and require that the office perform specific duties exclusively in service of the Police Commission. However, in terms of personnel administration or "appointing authority" (i.e. hiring, evaluating, disciplining, and firing employees), all the aforementioned personnel would be under the CAO's appointing authority jurisdiction. The redlined enabling ordinance has been amended to comport with the City Charter.

Changes also were necessary to preserve the reporting structure between the Chief of Police and the City Administrator. While Charter Article 604 gives the Police Commission the ability to terminate the Police Chief for cause, it does not give the Police Commission the authority to direct the Chief to perform specific tasks.

To summarize, the draft Police Commission enabling ordinance has been amended to:

- place the Police Commission's Inspector General and her/his office staff under the personnel jurisdiction of the City Administrator;
- require that the Police Commission provide an annual assessment of the Inspector General's job performance to the City Administrator;

- place the Police Commission's administrative support staff under the personnel jurisdiction of the City Administrator;
- require that the Police Commission ask (rather than direct) the Chief of Police to notify the Commission of certain types of serious incidents; and
- remove the provision that directed the Chief of Police to appoint a sworn liaison to the OIG.<sup>2</sup>

III. Discussion

Charter sections 604(b)(12) and 604(h) authorize the Council to assign additional functions and duties to the Police Commission by ordinance to further the goals and purposes of Measure LL. Measure LL, however, must be read in harmony with the rest of the City Charter. So the functions and duties the Council assigns to the Police Commission cannot alter the powers or duties that the Charter reserves to other offices in the City.

The Council's authority to establish an OIG and/or other Commission staff positions also derives from Charter sections 600 and 902, which authorize the Council to create, organize and reorganize City functions. Specifically, Charter section 600 empowers the Council to establish "duties, powers and functions which in the judgment of the Council will provide the most efficient and economical service possible." It goes on to say that "[a]ll departments or administrative agencies so created shall be administered by the City Administrator or by a department head or other officer appointed by and responsible to him/her." Charter Section 503 reserves to the City Administrator, subject to civil service rules, "the power to appoint, assign, reassign, discipline and remove all directors or head of departments and all employees under his [or her] jurisdiction."

There are two categories of exceptions to the default rule that personnel administration is under the City Administrator's jurisdiction. The first category is elected officials. The City Administrator obviously is not the appointing authority for elected officials such as the Mayor, Auditor, Council Members and City Attorney and they are

<sup>2</sup> Lastly, Section 2.45.150 previously required the Commission to obtain Council approval before establishing "other standing committee[s]." OCA recommends striking the word "other" as the Commission does not yet have any standing committees. The Commission's discipline committees are not standing committees because will be formed as-needed, on a case-by-case basis with changing membership, and they have no predetermined meeting times.

the appointing authorities for staff in their offices.<sup>3</sup> The second, category is City offices, departments, agencies, boards/commissions and positions that the Charter explicitly provides are outside of the City Administrator's jurisdiction. The Charter provides the following exceptions to the City Administrator's jurisdiction:

- Charter section 603(g)(3) provides that the Executive Director of the PEC serves "at the pleasure of the Commission" such that the "City Administrator shall not have the authority to remove the Executive Director";
- Article VII of the Charter creates the Port Department and vests in the Port Board of Commissioners exclusive control and management of the department. Consistent with the Port Board's jurisdiction over the Port Department, Charter sections 706(20) and 706(21) give the Port Board the power to "appoint a Port Attorney" and fix her/his compensation, as well as the power to "employ and appoint and Executive Director, and such other officers, employees and agents as may be necessary" to Port business;
- Charter section 604(e)(6) explicitly gives the Police Commission the power to "periodically conduct a performance review of the Agency Director" but stops short of giving the Police Commission full appointing authority. The Police Commission may terminate the CPRA Director, but the City Administrator appoints new directors from among candidates the Commission submits;
- Charter section 604(e)(6) gives the CPRA Director "the authority to hire and fire Agency staff, in consultation with the City Administrator"; and
- Charter section 604(b)(10) gives the Police Commission the power to terminate the Police Chief for just cause, grants the Mayor authority to terminate the Police Chief and the authority to appoint the Police Chief from a list of not less than four candidates presented by the Commission.

<sup>3</sup> Consequently, Charter section 218, which prohibits Council interference in administrative services, only contemplates administrative services being delivered by "the City Administrator, Mayor and other appointed or elected officers."

In each of these instances, the exception to or limitation on the City Administrator's usual authority is in the Charter.<sup>4</sup> Administrative support for boards and commissions is provided by the City Administrator by employees under the City Administrator's jurisdiction, except when the Charter explicitly provides an exception. For example, Charter Article IX established the Civil Service Board, and section 904 required the Council to "by ordinance provide a modern system of personnel administration for the competitive civil service." The Council's ordinance, at 2.08.040 provides "[t]he City Administrator shall provide the [Civil Service] Board with assistance from City employees under his/her jurisdiction."

IV. Conclusion

The Council may authorize and budget for staff to support the Police Commission to further the goals of Measure LL, and, subject to the Civil Service Rules, the Council may give that staff certain functions or duties to carry out in service of the Police Commission. But the staff who provide services to the Commission are under the City Administrator's personnel jurisdiction (i.e. appointing authority) because the Charter does not provide an exception to the City Administrator's jurisdiction. Based on the foregoing we have presented redlined amendments to the enabling ordinance that were included in the supplemental agenda packet for the Council's March 20, 2018 meeting.

Very truly yours,

<sup>4</sup> Notably, the City Attorney's appointing authority, unlike other elected officials, is explicitly spelled out in the Charter. See City Charter §401(6). This makes sense when one recalls that the City Attorney was not always elected. Thus, back when the City Attorney was appointed, the Charter explicitly provided independent jurisdiction for that office, whereas independent jurisdiction was a given for the elected offices.
