In the matter of

Oakland Tribune

The Oakland Tribune

I am a citizen of the United States; I am over the age of eighteen years, and not a party to or interested in the above-entitled matter. I am the Legal Advertising Clerk of the printer and publisher of The Oakland Tribune, a newspaper published in the English language in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California.

I declare that The Oakland Tribune is a newspaper of general circulation as defined by the laws of the State of California as determined by this court's order, dated December 6, 1951, in the action entitled In the Matter of the Ascertainment and Establishment of the Standing of The Oakland Tribune as a Newspaper of General Circulation, Case Number 237798. Said order states that "The Oakland Tribune is a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Oakland, and the County of Alameda, and the State of California, within the meaning and intent of Chapter 1, Division 7, Title 1 [§§ 6000 et seq.], of the Government Code of the State of California." Said order has not been revoked, vacated, or set aside.

I declare that the notice, of which the annexed is a printed copy, has been published in each regular and entire issue of said newspaper and not in any supplement thereof on the following dates, to wit:

05/11/2018

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: May 11, 2018

NOTICE AND DIGEST

ORDINANCE ADDING CHAPTER 9.64 TO THE OAKLAND MUNICIPAL CODE ESTABLISHING RULES FOR THE CITY'S ACQUISITION AND USE OF SURVEILLANCE EQUIPMENT.

This ordinance sets rules for how the City of Oakland acquires and uses surveillance technology. It requires the City to establish policies governing the use of surveillance technology. It also provides a review process for new and existing surveillance technology whereby the Privacy Advisory Commission will evaluate and provide a public forum for discussion on proposed and existing City surveillance technology in regards to privacy rights, public safety, and fiscal considerations. The Ordinance also specifies that City Council approval is required for the City to use new and existing surveillance technology. Further, it establishes an ongoing review process for City Council, on an annual basis to evaluate whether already approved surveillance technology should continue to be used based on the same considerations referenced above.

Notice of Publication

This Ordinance was introduced at the City Council meeting, Tuesday evening May 1, 2018, and passed to print 7 Ayes, 1 Excused Reid. Final adoption has been scheduled for the City Council meeting Tuesday evening May 15, 2018, 5:30 p.m., at One Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, Council Chamber, 3rd floor, Oakland, California.
