WHEREAS, the preemptive power shutoffs were an attempt by Pacific Gas and Electric (PG&E) to prevent wildfires from being started by electrical equipment during strong and dry winds; and

WHEREAS, before, during, and after the PSPS events, it was apparent that Oakland and cities across the state lacked critical equipment, plans, public education materials, and supplies focused on individual and family preparedness for electric disruptions; and

WHEREAS, to support cities around the state, California's Office of Emergency Services announced on October 25, 2019 that it would begin offering grants of up to $500,000 to help jurisdictions prepare for and respond to future Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) events; and

WHEREAS, in November of 2019, the Oakland Fire Department (OFD) applied for and was awarded on December 3, 2019 a State of California Office of Emergency Services 2019-20 Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) Resiliency Allocation to Cities Grant in the amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000); and

WHEREAS, the grant is intended to fund the purchase of communication systems and related supplies and support City resiliency programs; and

WHEREAS, the primary goal of the is to provide direct financial assistance to better prepare and respond to future PSPS events and provide services to Oakland residents at higher risk for distress and other adverse consequences as a result of PSPS, specifically individuals with access and functional needs, medical baseline and socially vulnerable populations; and

The estimate also includes the PSPS field activity, which included monitoring traffic signals at major intersections, increasing public safety patrols, and identifying damage to critical infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, prior to submitting grant application materials, the Oakland Fire Department and the City's Chief Resilience Officer reached out to several City departments in order to balance material needs and programming priorities within the $500,000 allocation; and

WHEREAS, by accepting and administering these grant funds, the City of Oakland proposes to take the following actions:

- Procure solar-powered and energy-efficient mobile electricity generators and backup power systems to support critical infrastructure, such as Fire Stations, impacted by PSPS ($165,000);
- Procure services to assess city-owned critical facilities (including evaluation of energy demand, building ventilation, and shelter capacity) to support the expansion of resilience hubs ($125,000);
- Expand Neighbors Helping Neighbors community preparedness program for vulnerable populations ($100,000);
- Procure supplies to improve communication during PSPS such as signage and radios ($75,000);
- Procure supplies to improve the overall operations at the Emergency Operations Center ($35,000); and now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That acceptance of the PSPS grant and the procurement of these items is essential and necessary to respond in a more coordinated manner among City staff, while conducting outreach to vulnerable communities, and ensuring the City has the needed infrastructure and materials to support Oakland residents in the event of an even greater crisis than experienced in 2019, such as a large fire or longer power outage; and be it
