Title: Subject: Impact Of Approving Resolution No. 87485 (Measure AA)
 From: Member Of Public: Gene Hazzard
 Recommendation: Receive An Informational Report From The Office Of The City Attorney: Report Should Include The Following Information 1) What Impact, If Any, That The Complaint Filed By A Member Of The Public With The Secretary Of State Challenging The City Councils Action Of December 14, 2018 Approving Resolution No. 87485 (Measure AA) Was In Fact Fraudulent. The Council Action Altering The Finding Of The Certification Of The Election Results By Tim Dupis, The Alameda County Voter Registrar Stated That Measure AA Appearing On The November 6, 2018 Had Passed When It Did Not Receive The Requisite Percentage (66 2/3) For Passage , So It Had Failed. Further, The Councils Action On April 16, 2019 Amending The December 14, 2018 Action Not To Collect The $198.00 Parcel Tax Which Was Required, Had Measure AA Been Legitimately Approved By The Voters, What Impact, If Any, Would This Complaint Have On The Vallidation Action That The Council Directed Staff To Execute In Resolution 87485 Of December 14, 2018; As Soon As Possible On The City Council Agenda
